FOLKS NEAR RADNOR WEDDED 50 YEARS

More Than 150 Attend Party at
John H. Price Home

Special to the Star
RADNOR, Aug. 27—A grand house was held Tuesday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Price east of here. In honor of their golden wedding anniversary. More than 150 relatives and friends called in to extend congratulations. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and potted plants. Mr. and Mrs. Price were the recipients of many gifts.

A vocal solo was given by Paul Shuster, who played piano. A solo by Mrs. L. B. Finkle, who sang in the church choir, was also given. The evening was a most enjoyable one. The evening was a most enjoyable one. The evening was a most enjoyable one.

Guests at the observance on Tuesday who attended the marriage ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Sull, George Miller and Mrs. Elizabeth Price. Mrs. Price was the gown in which she was married.

They have four children: Arthur, Price of Radnor; Mrs. Howard Wainline of Delaware; Mrs. W. D. Bensley and Mrs. A. L. McChann of Columbus.

Members of the Baptist Mission society were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kyle at Oceola Friday. Mrs. Harold Schneider was assistant hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Kyle were formerly of near Radnor.

The Thomas family enjoyed a dinner at the Prospect park in honor of the 50th birth anniversary of Mrs. W. J. Thomas.

WRINKLES and HAIR ON LIPS

Now "Faded Away"

BLACKHEADS AND OILY SKIN CURBED

Thousands of women who formerly were miserable over a skin blemish with wrinkles, pores, a hair on face, blackheads or oily skin, now have about a new complexion. This remarkable preparation contains five grains that has an unusual four fold effect. It penetrates into the depths of the pores, dissolves the blackheads and cures the blemish. Spread the cream over the face and neck. It helps to fade out wrinkles so that, in many cases, the face appears about a little face powder. Then makes the skin look lovely and smooth. For the hair on lips and face is softened and removed. DIOXIDEN CREAM has been tested and is a real 100% Food Housekeeping Bureau. It is the only hair remover in the world containing live OXYGEN. Cream with every jar gives 24 hour daily oxygen treatment.

Bace said lazily. Well, whe
do we eat?
Wherever you say. Lets g
where its qut.
Pigh. The grill's the Merriac
ought to it.
They walked slowly to the Merriac and found the grill fairly cool and alms deerted. Carol ordered sliced chicken a fro en
saland and lead coffee.
He grinned quizzically. O
course its none of my busine.
and I know I shouldnt speak of it
but that's pre ty shm fare fo
a workin, girl. Whether you want to eat or not, you ght to stw away
an occasional steak with a lot of potatoes and vegetables. How about it?
All right. You do the orde
ing hen I'm just not yet
hungry.
The steak when it came was delicious and she found that Blake was right her appetite had been lurking around a corner awaiting its chance. He look gratified.
What did I tell you? Let thi
be a lesson to you.
All right. She full surpise
ly meek. I won't do it again.
Afterwards they drove out Peachtree in silence and he let her at the Sherwood entrance.
She glanced at the lower ng
facade.
Cosy little neat what?
Very. But mine's just about a cosy, right now. Well—goodnight.
Goodnight. And thanks for a grand evening. She added rue-fully. I'm always thanking you for something. When will I ever have a chance to do something in return?
He said roughly. Oh rot to already have. And turned quick-away.
Carol laid several typewritten sheets on her employ's desk and tried to make her voice casual.
Here are the first four I thought it would be better for you to pass judgment before I'd done all of em wrong. Shall I wait or will you read them and then talk them
over?
I'll read them all first. I'll call
you in a few minutes.
He picked up the first advertisement with considerable curiosity.
Blake read deliberately. When he had finished he put the pages aside and reflected that they held the answer to his impulsive decision regarding Carol. The ads were good a few rough spots of course and a few changes in make up, but her idea was sound and not threadbare. He rang for his secretary.
Tell Miss Torrance I'd like to see her.
Carol came in and he saw the

Wesley Defeats Salem To Win No. 2 League Pennant

TEAM GAINS RIGHT TO PLAY IN LITTLE WORLD SERIES GAMES

Commercial League Race Takes Center of Interest Today

Wesley, who had been in a losing position, today won the pennant by defeating Salem 4 to 2. The victory was a surprise to many, as Wesley had been considered a weak team. The game was played in a hot sun, and the players were exhausted. Wesley's pitcher, Roy Weatherly, was the star of the game, throwing a complete game and allowing only two runs. Salem's pitcher, Earl Averill, was also good, but Wesley's offense was too strong for him. The game was a classic example of the underdog team winning.

Wesley's victory today gives them the right to play in the Little World Series games. The games will be played in a few days, and Wesley is expected to be a strong contender. The Commercial League race is the center of interest today, as fans watch Wesley's progress.

TODAY'S STAR IN SOFTBALL

W. Gorenflo, Wesley's center fielder, who featured his team's pennant victory over Salem last night by leading out a home run in the fifth inning after two men had strangled and a third had reached first on a bunt, today was the star of the game.

In his team's pennant-winning victory last night, Wesley's center fielder, W. Gorenflo, played a vital part in the victory. He led off the home run in the fifth inning, which proved to be the winning run. Gorenflo's performance today was just as impressive, as he led off another home run in the fifth inning. Wesley's pitcher, Roy Weatherly, was also good, throwing a complete game and allowing only two runs.

Double for Catcher. Wesley's catcher, Ray Walters, was the star of the game. He batted double in the second inning, which helped Wesley take a 2-0 lead. Walters' performance today was just as impressive, as he batted double in the second inning. Wesley's pitcher, Roy Weatherly, was also good, throwing a complete game and allowing only two runs.

The score by innings: Wesley 4, Salem 2. Walters and Weatherly were the stars of the game.

RESULTS YESTERDAY: Wesley 4, Salem 2. Walters and Weatherly were the stars of the game.

Wesley's victory today gives them the right to play in the Little World Series games. The games will be played in a few days, and Wesley is expected to be a strong contender. The Commercial League race is the center of interest today, as fans watch Wesley's progress.

THE OTHER FELLOW!

THE FOREST GLEN CATHEDRAL HOME

But in the Course of Our Service We Have Stood Beside Many, Many Families Ravaged by the Sudden Horror of a Fatal Accident — and So When We Mention SAFETY, We Know Whereof We Speak!

We all recognize and appreciate the good results in health that our boys and girls get from being in the open, on camping trips, riding their bikes, or hiking off cross country. One who today would raise his voice against the automobile, the train or the airplane saying that they were implements of no good for mankind would be as ludicrous as the millions who decried these same things in their infancy. Those of us who stand foursquare for advancement, for progress, for unselfish service and the elimination of prejudice have nothing but encouragement for everyone who takes advantage of the refinements of life available to us through human ingenuity.

It is a foolhardy enthusiasm that is not tempered with sober judgment. In the same breath that we shout to the aviator to take to the heavens and go to the ends of the earth and to the motorist to ride forever and a day on the smooth ribbons of our nation's highways, we also say, "Know your machine. Handle it well. Exercise care, but care alone is not enough, for even the most cautious and careful have serious accidents. There is a standard for doing everything, riding, driving, flying, walking. Know that standard and keep up to it." We, who have stood many times in the midst of stunned, broken families, know the cruelty of untimely death.

Safety, itself, is a development of modern progress. Like labor-saving machines, like modern memorial parks, like all the agencies of modern transportation, safety practices exist today because modern man has a definite need of them, and what man needs he sets about obtaining through resourcefulness and initiative. Safety isn't an old-fashioned something that parents and grandparents are trying to bequeath to younger generations. Safety is as modern as today. It is a subject that demands study and that nations, states, cities and great industries spend enormous sums to obtain. To practice safety is not to be old-fashioned or a laggard, but a leader, a pioneer in a field where the possibilities are ever broadening.

FOREST GLEN HEARTILY ENDORSE THE MARION BICYCLE SAFETY CONTEST AND URGES EVERY MARION BOY AND GIRL TO PARTICIPATE. OFFICIAL ENTRY BLANKS MAY BE OBTAINED AT THE FOREST GLEN OFFICE, 127 S. STATE OR THE CATHEDRAL HOME BY CHILDREN ACCOMPANIED BY PARENTS.

THOSE WHO PARTICIPATE IN CONTEST HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO RENDER VALUABLE
COMMUNITY SERVICE

This contest has been heartily endorsed by public officials and safety organizations as an outstanding movement to arouse safety consciousness. Soon school will be reopening and at certain hours of the day there will be a larger number of bicycles in operation than any time during the vacation months. It is only natural to assume that the winning suggestions when published will represent a standard for all cyclists to adopt. One official in commenting on the contest said, "Here is something that is vital not only to the boys and girls but to everyone. Parents, relatives and friends should take an interest and urge the boys and girls to enter, not only for the chance to win the attractive prizes, but also for the chance to render a valuable community service."

(See Next Page for Further Details of Contest.)
